1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning:

a. I mentioned the delays encountered in constructing the new receiver installation [REDACTED] that the Executive Committee had suggested that, if the [REDACTED] remain adamant in opposing the construction of the site, we should not agree to their position but should take it up on a diplomatic level through [REDACTED] Jack appreciated our support in this project and will determine the status of current negotiations.)

3. Colonel White brought to my attention a newspaper article in today's Evening Star concerning a recent law authorizing a Government payroll section to send salary checks directly to any bank named by an employee. (I called [REDACTED] who was aware of this article. He will advise me of the legal findings in the new law. The Office of Finance has been studying this problem and is prepared to put this system into effect after working out a payrolling system for this purpose with the Office of Computer Services. We will issue an Employee Bulletin stating that this procedure will be authorized for Agency employees and that details will be spelled out as soon as a system can be developed.)
